The music was composed by Deva. The film was released on 30 May 2001 and became a super hit. Plot In a village, Pothunagar, there is a traditional custom of girls' naming ceremony, and this is the only opportunity when every girl of the village gets her name, as her father and mother have come together, where her father (Suresh Babu) and mother (Snehal) get their children's names. The teacher (N.L. Balakrishnan), who is also the village school teacher, gets the "ameer tam" to be named, meaning 'the father of the year' and the older sister of the school teacher and a classmate of the village boys gets to be named, meaning 'the mother of the year'. The father of the year (Jayanthi), the mother of the year (Rajashakar) and the student who gets the father's name (Kunal) also have the same name of the person they get the name of. The students begin to fight with each other and the next person gets the same name. Soon the village is in a chaos and the entire village is divided in three groups. All of them have the same name. Here, the two brothers (Vijayakumar and Vadivelu), decide to get married and become one. Meanwhile, a rape case comes in the village, which results in the death of a student. At that time, the students, at the name taking ceremony, hold an alliance with the three families, where the three families want to take revenge from those students who killed their son. The next day, the three families begin to kill all the students who are responsible for the death of their son. Meanwhile, the teacher is watching the students being killed and while carrying the dead body of a student, he also happens to kill the rapist, who was responsible for the death of the student. This makes the whole village to ask, what has happened to the education system. The teacher begins to have an emotional breakdown and to get a way out, leaves the village. The next day, the father of the year and the mother of the year, along with their families, comes to the village and wants to get the dead body of their son, who was killed in the past. The teacher, who was initially a troublemaker, comes to the village now with a different intention. He wants to give the dead body 82157476af
